

$125 Solitaire Diamond Ring

To be given away absolutely Free to parents of a baby entered in the Telegram's

$1,600 SHOWER OF GOLD FOR BABIES

This handsome diamond ring was purchased from the popular and well-known local jewelers, F. A. Robinson and Son, in whose window it will be displayed after Monday, where interested parents and others may see it. It will be awarded to the parents of the baby turning in the most money on subscription payments during the second period of the campaign, which will commence October 4, and end Saturday, October 16, at 9 p. m.

This special offer does not in any way interfere with the Gold prizes offered and votes and subscriptions will count toward winning a gold prize for your baby. It is possible for you to win the diamond ring and your baby to win the $500.00 in Gold. The winner of the Diamond Ring will not be announced until the board of judges announce the winners of all the prizes after the close of the campaign. At the end of the Diamond Ring period, each competitor will be given a statement to sign, which will show the amount of money turned in on subscriptions during the special offer. These statements will be turned over to the judges on the last night in order that they may determine the winner.

290,000 Extra votes for every club of $15 in new subscriptions during the second period.

140,000 Extra votes for every club of $15 in old subscriptions during the second period.

After close of second period bonus offers will decrease 10,000 on both new and old clubs as was announced at starting of campaign.

A Great Opportunity for New Entrants

This is an excellent opportunity for new entries. If you have a baby in your home and wish to give it a bank account simply cut out the nomination blank, fill it in and bring or send it to the Shower of Gold Department, the Clarksburg Telegram office. Then get busy asking your friends for subscriptions.

If your baby has been nominated and you have not started to secure subscriptions you should not hesitate any longer, but get busy today and ask your friends to help. Your friends have honored you and your baby by placing its name in the race. You should show your appreciation of this honor by doing something yourself. You owe your baby the right kind of a start in life. The right start is with a bank account. You can trade your spare time for a bank account.

Will you do it? You will.
